These show-stopping jewels shined as bright as the coveted Oscar statuette.

When it comes to the Academy Awards, the iconic ceremony reserved for honoring the best and brightest actors and filmmakers is in a class all its own. No other event in Hollywood brings out celebrities and luminaries dressed in designer ensembles and bedecked with exquisite jewels like the Oscars.

Since 1929, the legendary awards show has set the standard for glitz and glamour. Over the years, Tiffany & Co. has been right there as a treasured accessory and welcomed adornment for stars who relish making a dazzling entrance and stunning appearance. From the red carpet to center stage at the podium, Tiffany & Co. is a high jewelry staple at the Oscars.

Notable talent flock to the high jewelry house for its masterful craftsmanship and timeless designs. The best part? The options abound for this star-studded occasion. Whether style-conscious attendees want to make a bold statement with delightful pieces from the whimsical Schlumberger collection or showcase a refined, classic look with mesmerizing diamonds, Tiffany & Co. delivers on elegant, award-worthy jewels.

Here we look back at some of Tiffany & Co.’s most remarkable Oscar appearances.

Andra Day

Andra Day was a vision at the 93rd Academy Awards in 2021. The Best Actress nominee complemented her gold Vera Wang Haute gown with a bevy of Tiffany & Co. jewels, including earrings in platinum and 18k yellow gold with Fancy Vivid yellow and white diamonds. She accented her head-turning ensemble with delightful Tiffany & Co. Schlumberger® pieces such as the Two Bees ring in platinum and 18k yellow gold with diamonds, and a Cooper bracelet.

Charlize Theron

Academy Award-winning actress Charlize Theron glowed exquisitely in a platinum pendant adorned with more than 21 dazzling carats and diamonds at the 92nd Academy Awards in 2020.

Gal Gadot

Israeli actress and model Gal Gadot sparkled in a Tiffany & Co. Clara necklace in platinum at the 92nd Academy Awards. At the heart of the piece is a diamond of more than 11 carats.

Lady Gaga

Pop icon Lady Gaga, who won the Oscar for Best Original Song in 2019, looked flawless in a pair of platinum and 18k yellow gold earrings. The set sparkled, awash in Fancy Vivid yellow diamonds and white diamonds. Equally jaw-dropping is the platinum necklace Lady Gaga donned, featuring a 129.54-carat Fancy yellow diamond with 16 cushion-cut diamonds hand-crafted from more than 80 total carats and 46 round brilliant diamonds over 15 total carats.

Emma Stone

Emma Stone stunned at the 89th Academy Awards in 2017. The Oscar winner’s 18k yellow gold and platinum with diamond earrings highlighted her soft scarlet curls.

Natalie Portman

Natalie Portman, who won Best Actress for her performance in Black Swan at the Oscars in 2011, looked ravishing in her off-the-shoulder plum-colored Rodarte dress. Her look was elevated by dazzling Tiffany & Co. tassel earrings with violet gemstones.
