Tonight, a series of stars walked the Tiffany Blue® carpet to celebrate the opening of the iconic jewellery brand's exhibition, Vision & Virtuosity, an extraordinary display of jewels, craftmanship and creativity that welcomes over 400 objects from the House's archives to London's Saatchi Gallery.

Stars including Gal Gadot, ROSÉ, Florence Pugh, Daisy Edgar-Jones, Rachel Zegler, Simone Ashley, Mark Ronson, Nicola Coughlan and Eileen Gu and more attended the party and all wore designs from Tiffany & Co. The exclusive celebration featured a performance by Mark Ronson, who DJed in front of the dancing crowd.

Vision & Virtuosity is a visual chronicle of the storied jeweller's history since its founding in New York City in 1837, taking visitors on a journey through everything from archival high jewellery designs and Tiffany's famed window displays to its recently acquired Empire Diamond of over 80 carats and important relics of popular culture, such as the original script from Breakfast at Tiffany's. It is a celebration of Tiffany's authority as the purveyor of the world's finest diamonds and a showcase of how two core values—vision and virtuosity—have guided the House for 185 years.

Marking the jeweller's 150th anniversary in London, Vision & Virtuosity debuts at Saatchi Gallery, located in the Duke of York's Headquarters near Sloane Square, on Friday, 10 June 2022, and will run until 19 August. Tickets are available on the Tiffany & Co. app, available on the iOS and Google Play app stores, or at the exhibition.
