

Richard Moore is divisional vice president, global store design and creative visual merchandising at Tiffany & Co. In this capacity, he is responsible for the brand expression of the overall store design and architecture including all interior elements along with the creative development for windows, jewelry presentation, artwork, as well as events, exhibitions for Tiffany & Co. stores worldwide.

Mr. Moore joined Tiffany & Co. in 2009. From 2003 until 2009, he was head of visual identity at Liberty, London; and from 1999 until 2003, he was a visual merchandiser at The Conran Shop in London.

He graduated from the University of Leeds in 1999 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in theatre design.