

NEW YORK, NY - This year, Tiffany & Co. celebrates Valentine's Day with the House's new The Language of Love campaign featuring notable poems and literary works by acclaimed poets and writers ranging from Plato to Ella Wheeler Wilcox and Diane Ackerman. Love has remained the driving force behind Tiffany & Co. since its inception in 1837, and the campaign uplifts its many facets.

For nearly two centuries, Tiffany & Co.'s iconic creations have helped the world speak the ever-changing language of love. Today, the House's new Valentine's Day campaign celebrates love through poetic tributes, capturing authentic expressions of timeless bonds. A mix of iconic excerpts and passages, such as, "The madness of love is the greatest of heaven's blessings" from Plato's Phaedrus and Rumi's "A thousand half-loves must be forsaken to take one whole heart home," are showcased in the campaign which will be featured across quintessential New York City locations and Tiffany & Co. channels.

With heartfelt words, Tiffany & Co. celebrates the many ways in which love manifests this Valentine's Day. This year's The Language of Love campaign debuts on Tiffany's print and on digital channels on January 31, 2025.

About Tiffany & Co.
